REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Celebrating four decades of excellence, Northwestern prides itself in providing opportunities for all students to be successful academically, artistically, and athletically.

Northwestern faculty and staff provide world class instruction to a diverse group of young adults. Their overall dedication to their profession earned the staff acclaim noted by three finalist for and two fellow colleagues being named as South Carolina's State Teachers of the Year. Our school site program of studies offerings like CATE, Honors, Advanced Placement, International Baccalaureate, and Project Lead the Way gained school wide award and recognition. Accredited by Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and the High School That Works Technical Assistance Visit team, Northwestern has been annually recognized as a Palmetto Gold and/or Silver Award recipient for academic excellence. Our student's talents are often showcased with state honors being recognized. In the 2014 graduating class, thirty two seniors graduated with Highest Honors, twenty-eight graduated with Honors, twenty-three completed the academic and extracurricular requirements for the International Baccalaureate Diploma, thirty-three took three or more Advanced Placement Exams, four graduated as an Advanced Placement Scholar, one hundred thirteen were awarded a Gold Seal diploma, sixty seven were recognized as CATE completers, seventeen were awarded the SC Academic Achievement Honors Diploma, and twenty four were recognized as Palmetto Fellows. The combined monetary value of all scholarships awarded to the Class of 2014 exceeded $12.2 Million.

Northwestern's performing and visual arts program produced many Allstate performers. Our students exhibited artwork in local and state competitions with many pieces receiving top honors. Our schools orchestra program gained state and regional recognition by scoring superior rating on the highest level of performed music in the SC Music Educators Association competition. The choral students entertained our community with a winter holiday and spring concerts, along with other many requested community events. Our theater department performed multiple shows for the school and community as well. The Purple Regiment Marching Band advanced through state and regional competitions, and finished in sixth place for the 2013 marching season, which helped our total band program secure The Outstanding Performance Award given by the SC Band Director's Association for the 24th consecutive year.

As a result of the competitive spirit of our student/athletes and twenty Varsity teams, Northwestern continues to perform well in the SCHSL Director's Cup competition which recognizes the classifications most competitive athletic programs. Over ninety percent of our varsity teams were successful in gaining a birth in post season play. Northwestern finished the school year with five region championships (football, softball, baseball, and boys and girls track), state runner up in baseball and state champions in football and boy's track. The SC High School League recognized and awarded Northwestern athletes and coaches, a state leading seventy Scholar athletic certificates, seventy-two All Region athlete awards, five Region Coaches of the Year awards, thirty All State Athlete certificates and medallions, six North All Star athlete selections, two Shrine Bowler, and eleven Individual State
